PART 10

The last few weeks we have looked at the theme of complete devotion. How did it go? Have you been addressed by the Word of God? This week, we'll look at what Andrew Murray wrote about this subject in the last chapter of his book called Experiencing the Holy Spirit.

He uses 1 Corinthians 15:28 as an introduction: "When He has done this, then the Son Himself will be made subject to Him who put everything under Him, so that God may be all in all."

Andrew Murray writes more about this subject: The all of Sin. What is sin? It is the absence or separation from God. Where people are guided by their own will, their own honor, or their own power...sin is death and misery because it is a turning away from God...If a Christian is to make progress and become fully convinced of the necessity of being filled with the Spirit, his eyes must be opened to the extent to which sin dominates everything within him...God's omnipotence must take in hand the renewal of everything by the Holy Spirit...All of God must expel the all of sin. God must again live completely and entirely within us and continually take the place that sin usurped.

We will continue with this subject next week.
