PART 13

The last few weeks we looked at the theme of complete devotion/surrender/submission. How did it go? Have you been addressed by the Word of God? This week, we'll look further at what Andrew Murray wrote about this subject in the last chapter of his book called Experiencing the Holy Spirit.

He uses 1 Corinthians 15:28 as an introduction: "When He has done this, then the Son Himself will be made subject to Him who put everything under Him, so that God may be all in all."

Andrew Murray skryf verder die volgende oor hierdie onderwerp: The all of The Spirit: It is the work of the Spirit to glorify the Son who dwells in us and through Him to reveal the Father. To be filled with the Spirit, to let the Spirit have all, is indispensable to a true, healthy Christian life. Acknowledge that the Spirit must be all in you. The love of the Father is eagerly longing to secure again His own supreme place with us. Then your heart will be filled with the sure confidence that the Father actually gives you the fullness of the Spirit.

The all of Faith: Man is nothing and has nothing good in him except the capacity for receiving God. The more persistently and purposefully he believes, the more fully the all of God and Christ will reign and work in him. I have to keep my soul open before God so that He can be free to work in me. Faith is the willing acceptance and expectation of God's working. Let such a faith look on Christ today and move you to renounce every known sin and receive Him as One who purifies you.

Let the all of Christ be the power of a surrender on our part that will be immediate, complete, and everlasting.

Next week we will look further at what Andrew Murray wrote about this subject.
